Sir:

In response to the "Notice of Panel Decision from Pre-Appeal Brief Review" dated March 7, 2007, kindly enter Appellants' "Request for Reconsideration" without prejudice as follows:

Request for Reconsideration

The Official Gazette notice dated July 12, 2005 sets forth the Office procedures to be followed regarding Pre-Appeal Brief reviews. A Technology Center Art Unit Supervisor is to "designate a panel of Examiners experienced in the field of technology" to review the Pre-Appeal Brief Request. The panel is to consist of at least three people, including the Examiner of record and at least one Supervisor. All panel participants are to sign the Notice of Panel Decision. If necessary, the Supervisor/Examiner of record can contact Mark O. Polutta, Senior Legal Advisor, Office of Patent Legal Administration (571-272-7709) for confirmation regarding these Office procedures.

The "Notice of Panel Decision" dated March 7, 2007 is absent the required three signatures. The record indicates that a panel consisting of only two people reviewed the Appellants' "Pre-Appeal Brief Request for Review" filed on January 16, 2007. As a result, the "Notice of Panel Decision" is improper and not legally valid.

The Appellants respectfully request that the Office assemble a full panel that properly consists of at least three people. The Appellants further respectfully request that the Office then have this full panel review their previously filed "Pre-Appeal Brief Request for Review".

Respectfully submitted,

Ralph E. Jocke
